

Everything is Connected [Everything is a Remix]

consider somebody else's worldview ask questions

jolt your routine

innovation is the ability to turn ideas into invoices it's multi-dimensional your control mechanisms must be at least as complex as the system you're trying to control exploratory testing dice - Shemuel Gershon focus - critical thinking defocus - creative thinking diversity needs to be managed PSL - the process of creating an environment in which people become empowered (and inspired) to do their best work diversity either leads to better or worse results, never average ones status-quo bias
